ASLA XXII

Innovation, Instruction, Integration

2nd – 5th October, 2011

The Australian School Library Association has planned an outstanding conference where you will explore new ideas, new types of conference sessions and some great "old" ones as well!

Keynotes: Jeff Piontek, Adam Elliot, Judy O'Connell, Dean Groom, Mal Booth, Seb Chan.

Concurrent sessions cover a wide range of topics – Web 2, digital literacy, literature & literacy, school library management & make-overs, social media, inquiry-based learning, ICT integration and more.... see <http://www.asla.org.au/pd/conference/session-abstracts.htm>

Join us too for social fun & entertainment in our beautiful city of Sydney!

Accommodation will be available onsite at Saint Ignatius' College, Riverview, locally or in the CBD which will be serviced by bus to the conference.

For further information, go to the ASLA website <http://www.asla.org.au/pd/conference/>
